of said city a permit for that purpose. Such permit may be issued by said board of health upon the payment of a fee of $60, and said permit shall expire at the end of one year from the date thereof. The building shall be used for the keeping, slaughtering, and sale of poultry only.

Each stall holder in public poultry slaughterhouses shall be required to secure an annual poultry permit from the board of health for the purpose of keeping live poultry at said stall. No such permit shall be issued until the requirements of the board of health or of the health officer to insure a sanitary conduction [sic] of the premises shall first have been met or complied with. Such permits shall expire on the 1st day of May of each year. The fee for such permit will be $1.

Premises—Required to Have Supply of Pure Water Before Being Occupied.
(Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

To amend section 783 of the sanitary code so as to read:

SEC. 783. No premises shall be rented, let, leased, or occupied as a tenement house, dwelling house or apartment house unless said premises shall have a plentiful supply of pure water, suitable for domestic purposes, furnished at one or more places in such house or yard so that the same may be adequate and reasonably convenient for the use of the occupants of said house.

Any owner, agent, lessee or occupant of any building or buildings who shall violate, or fail to comply with any of the provisions of sections 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, or 783 of this code, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of $25 for the first offense and for each subsequent offense the sum of $50.

Buildings and Premises—Offensive Matter and Nuisances—Removal and Abatement. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

To amend section 822 of the sanitary code so as to read:

SEC. 822. Any owner, agent, tenant, lessee or occupant of any lot, ground, building, house or stable in this city, on notice from this board, or the health officer, shall forthwith remove from said lot, ground, building, house, or stable, any rubbish, garbage, offal, or any offensive matter or thing, or any weeds or growing vegetation liable to become the breeding grounds for mosquitoes or the hiding place for nuisances, or any poisonous plants; and any person on notice from this board or the health officer, shall abate any nuisance existing on any premises of which he may be the lessee, owner, agent, tenant or occupant.

Any person offending against, or violating the provisions of this section, or any of them, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of $10 for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense the sum of $25.

If any person shall refuse or neglect to remove any foul or obnoxious or hurtful matter or thing, or if any person shall refuse or neglect to abate any nuisance, then this board may proceed under the provisions of "An act to revise, consolidate and amend certain acts concerning boards of health in this State," approved March 31, 1887, and the supplements thereto, to remove said nuisance, source of foulness, or cause of sickness, and to recover, by action of debt against such person, the expense incurred by said board by such removal.

Rags, Bones, Offal, and Refuse Matter—Collection and Transportation—Permit Required. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

Section 819 of the sanitary code amended to read as follows:

SEC. 819. No rags, bones, offal, butchers' refuse, tannery scrapings, manure, or other refuse matter liable to decay, shall be brought into, gathered, collected, accumulated, stored, exposed, carried, or transported in any manner through any street or public place, or into any building or cellar in the city of Newark, except by permit of this board of health, which permit shall be revocable by said board at any and all times. No permit will be necessary for the handling of their own ashes and garbage by private individuals, institutions or buildings.

Any person, persons, firm, or corporation regularly engaged in the business of removing and transporting bones, butchers' refuse, tannery scrapings, manure, or other offensive animal matter, shall annually secure from the board of health a license to carry on such business, the fee for which shall be $2 per wagon, and which will expire on the last day of December of each year.

All carts and vehicles used for carrying such animal wastes as mentioned in this section shall bear on each side a license plate secured from the local board of health, which shall have on it the words "Newark Board of Health," the number of the permit, and the year for which license is issued.

Nuisances Defined. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

To amend section 810 by adding the following nuisances to the five which are defined at present.

(6) The use of any room for sleeping in any dwelling house, apartment house, hotel, or other building which is overcrowded and where the cubic capacity for each adult is less than 400 cubic feet and for each child under 12 years of age 250 cubic feet.

(7) The papering of any walls or ceilings of any room in any dwelling house, tenement, apartment building, or hotel, or any building used for a dwelling before all the old paper shall have been previously scraped or thoroughly removed from the walls or other parts.

(8) Allowing any building to be occupied as a tenement house, apartment house, dwelling house, factory building, without a plentiful supply of pure water, suitable for domestic or personal requirements, by any person who is responsible for such provision by reason of ownership, possession, or agreement, or in which the water supply has been turned off for any reason, except to repair faulty plumbing, for any period longer than 12 hours.

(9) Allowing of any dog to run at large or come in contact with children or any persons other than the immediate household of the owner if in the opinion of the board of health or health officer, the said dog is vicious and hazardous to the health of the city, or if it molests pedestrians or others without provocation. Such dogs, if taken out, must be muzzled or on the leash.

Bird Stores—Maintenance—Permit Required. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

No bird store in which are kept pigeons, guinea pigs, dogs, cats, or other animals for sale shall be allowed to be maintained or conducted without a permit from the board of health having first been obtained, which permit shall expire on the last day of December of each year, and the fee for which shall be $1. No permit shall be granted to any bird store unless the requirements of the board of health or the health officer, to insure a sanitary condition of the premises, shall first have been met or complied with.

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.

Bakery Products—Wrapping of, to Prevent Contamination. (Reg. Bd. of H., Mar. 29, 1916.)

All baked goods of any kind offered or exposed for sale in this city shall be wrapped in such manner as to prevent access of flies and contamination from hands and dust.
